The Collect: The Third Sunday after Trinity:

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin in the unity of the Holy Spirit, and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father:
give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service,
that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reflection: Third Sunday of Trinity

“Thy Kingdom come”, we pray. But what do we actually do to try to make it happen? That was something that Jesus encouraged his followers to think about when he sent 72 of them out in pairs raise the issue of God’s Kingdom in the areas that he himself was about to come.

Jesus gave them strict instructions. They were not to come as superior people with rich handouts to offer the less fortunate (- a trap that some Christian missions might have fallen into), but they were come in dependence and respect for whatever the people might be prepared to offer them.

They did come with a challenge, however. When the Polish Pope, John Paul II, returned to visit his native Poland, he stepped down from the aircraft and knelt to kiss the ground that was so special to him. In Biblical times, people returning from a visit outside the country would shake the dust off their sandals when they returned to God’s Kingdom, the Holy Land of Israel. The challenge the disciples are called to make is to demonstrate in a way familiar to all that the Kingdom of God is important, and a holy and special thing to be part of.

As Christians today, we may not feel we can all visit from house to house with the message of the Gospel – though clergy and some others are called to do that. But we can all share in some way, with respect for those we meet and with gratitude for what they offer, the fact that Jesus offers Good News in what he has to say.

Jesus’ work still carries on today, and all baptised members of his Body on earth today are entrusted with some part of the work. That work is a privilege, not a burden, and any achievements are a joy. But no boasting is called for. Jesus says to all of us, “Do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you but rejoice that your names are written in heaven”.

As we pray, “Thy Kingdom come”, may our eyes and hearts be open to the opportunities available to us.

Revd Canon Philip Norwood

Bible Readings: Sunday 3rd July 2022

The Third Sunday after Trinity:

New Testament Reading: Galatians 6: (1-6) 7-16 (NRSV)

⁷ Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow. ⁸ If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh, but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit. ⁹ So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. ¹⁰ So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all and especially for those of the family of faith.

Final Admonitions and Benediction

¹¹ See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand! ¹² It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh who try to compel you to be circumcised—only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. ¹³ Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. ¹⁴ May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me and I to the world. ¹⁵ For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything, but a new creation is everything! ¹⁶ As for those who will follow this rule—peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

¹⁷ From now on, let no one make trouble for me, for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body.

Gospel Reading: Luke 10: 1-11, 16-20 (NRSV)

The Mission of the Seventy-Two

¹ After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. ² He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore, ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. ³ Go on your way; I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. ⁴ Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. ⁵ Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!' ⁶ And if a person of peace is there, your peace will rest on that person, but if not, it will return to you. ⁷ Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. ⁸ Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; ⁹ cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' ¹⁰ But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, ¹¹ 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.'

¹⁶ "Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me."

The Return of the Seventy-Two

¹⁷ The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!" ¹⁸ He said to them, "I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. ¹⁹ Indeed, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will hurt you. ²⁰ Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

Bishops Youth Council:

Bishops Youth Council empowers young people to put their FAITH into action by providing a platform for young people across the Diocese of Leicester to have a VOICE and be heard. Our VISION is to see the church change, becoming younger and more diverse.

We are reimagining how we can hear the voice of children, young people and students in the Diocese. How might we involve schools, households and church-based children's and youth groups? We are looking to form a New Bishops Youth Council in September 2022. Are you interested in finding out more and shaping this exciting new journey? Find out more here
