Collect for Sunday 2nd February

Presentation of Christ in the Temple

Almighty and ever-living God, clothed in majesty,
whose beloved Son was this day presented in the Temple,
in substance of our flesh:
grant that we may be presented to you
with pure and clean hearts,
by your Son Jesus Christ our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reflection: Sunday 2nd February 2025

Presentation of Christ in the Temple

Candlemas brings to a close the Christmas Season, with hopefully happy memories of our celebrations at the end of December. "In the bleak mid-winter" we sang as we chose and wrapped our presents. "What can I give Him, poor as I am?...." – not a lamb, perhaps, but with the Wise Men we could "do our part", and above all, we did say we should "give my heart". Having sung all that (many times!) are we actually doing what we said we would do? Did we take in what the words mean? Mary and Joseph knew what it was to make a very great offering to God, such was their commitment to their faith and their loyalty to God's law. Forty days after childbirth, a mother was required to make an offering of two doves or young pigeons for her 'purification' (Leviticus 12.8), but in addition, as Mary's first-born male, Jesus had to be offered to God (Exodus 13.2). What a commitment! It was beautifully recognised by old Simeon in the Temple when God's Spirit revealed to him that he was meeting the child who would offer light to the whole world – at great cost to himself and to his mother. And Anna too, whose husband had died after they had been married seven years, and who at 84 had served ever since in the Temple; she knew without any doubt it had been worth all those years of dedication to see this baby.

Our offering to God is something to be taken very seriously, and not just at Christmas time. We follow a man who in every way was as human as us, who made the supreme offering of his whole life to God. The writer of the letter to the Hebrews emphasises the humanity we share with Jesus, and also the incredible benefit we receive from his offering.

We make offerings in many ways, especially to the people we love, but also in taxes to our country and local community. Yet surely, our first loyalty should always be to the Kingdom of God, and that loyalty, according to Malachi, is what we are judged on.

Revd Philip Norwood

Bible Readings: Sunday 2nd February 2025

Presentation of Christ in the Temple

Malachi 3.1-5

3 See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts.

2 But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap;

3 he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness.

4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

5 Then I will draw near to you for judgement; I will be swift to bear witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hired workers in their wages, the widow, and the orphan, against those who thrust aside the alien, and do not fear me, says the Lord of hosts.

Hebrews 2.14-end

14 Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil,

15 and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death.

16 For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham.

17 Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people.

18 Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Luke 2.22-40

22 When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord

23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord, 'Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord'),

24 and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, 'a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons.'

25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him.

26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah.

27 Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law,

28 Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying, 29 'Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace,

according to your word;

30 for my eyes have seen your salvation,

31

which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,

32 a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.'

33 And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him.

34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, 'This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed

35 so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too.'

36 There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, 37 then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped there with fasting and prayer night and day.

38 At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

39 When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

40 The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him.
