Collect for Sunday 5th December

Second Sunday after Christmas, Epiphany

O God,
who by the leading of a star
manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth:
mercifully grant that we,
who know you now by faith,
may at last behold your glory face to face;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Reflection: Sunday 5th January 2024

Second Sunday after Christmas, Epiphany

When Paul was on his way to Damascus to arrest followers of the Messiah, he was knocked to the ground in an experience which he later described as meeting the risen Jesus. He saw the light in more ways than one, and he went away to talk to others and to spend a long time in the desert on his own in contemplation and study. He came to realise two things: first, that the teaching of the Messiah which had angered him so much revealed that God's truth was not for Jews only but for all people of every race and nation; and second, that he himself had to go and tell people about it. He describes the truth that had dawned on him as a 'mystery', which had not been understood even though the prophets had preached about it. Isaiah talks about the light shining out and penetrating the darkness and drawing to the Lord people of every nation. And Paul knew that whatever it cost him, he must share that revelation which had now been entrusted to the Apostles. What Paul experienced is what we call an 'Epiphany'.

The Apostles were not actually the first people to experience this. The first were the 'Wise Men', the astrologers who although they were not Jews, were among the very first people to acknowledge Jesus as the Messiah and to worship him. That is their only real importance in the story. We may give a symbolism to the gifts they offered – but surely, they had to carry gold pay for travel, and they carried spices on the spice road from the east. They offered what they had and what kept them alive.

And so must we. The Feast of the Epiphany represents the fact that we all are called to 'see the light' in some way, and like St. Paul to share the truth revealed in the birth and death of our Saviour, Jesus of Nazareth.

Bible Readings:

Sunday 5th January 2024

Second Sunday after Christmas, Epiphany

Isaiah 60.1-6

60 Arise, shine; for your light has come,
and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you.
2 For darkness shall cover the earth,
and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise
upon you,
and his glory will appear over you.
3 Nations shall come to your light,
and kings to the brightness of your dawn.
4 Lift up your eyes and look around;
they all gather together, they come to you; your sons
shall come from far away,
and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses'
arms.
5 Then you shall see and be radiant;
your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you,
the wealth of the nations shall come to you.
6 A multitude of camels shall cover you,
the young camels of Midian and Ephah;
all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense,
and shall proclaim the praise of the Lord .

Ephesians 3.1-12

3 This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ
Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles-
2 for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given to me for you, 3 and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, 4 a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ.
5 In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:
6 that is, the Gentiles have become fellow-heirs,
members of the same body, and sharers in the promise
in Christ Jesus through the gospel.
7 Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the working of his power.
8 Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, 9 and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; 10 so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places.
11 This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, 12 in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Matthew 2.1-12

2 In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem,
2 asking, 'Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.'
3 When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him;
4 and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born.
5 They told him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:
6 "And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for
from you shall come a ruler
who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" 7 Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared.
8 Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, 'Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.'
9 When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was.
10 When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy.
11 On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary
his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage.
Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him
gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
12 And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

The Emergence of Focal Ministry

As the shape of ministry changes across our diocese, many people are feeling called to offer spiritual leadership in their local church.

Focal Ministry is the name being given to this emerging form of ministry, which involves enabling prayer and worship, encouraging others in deepening their faith and equipping local churches to bless their communities.

The role of a Focal Minister is to offer spiritual leadership to a local church or benefice. They are faithful people who are:

- Rooted in their community
- The visible face of the church
- Fruitful in encouraging the growth of faith and gifts in others.

Liz Rawlings, our Discipleship and Vocations Enabler, has been reflecting on what she has been noticing, and explains: "As I have travelled around the diocese, I have met a number of people offering local leadership in their churches, enabling prayer and worship, building faith in others and connecting the church with the community.

"It seems that God is at work growing local spiritual leaders and it's inspiring to hear their stories. Our task now is to serve and support this ministry and share what the Spirit is doing among us."

There's more information about Focal Ministry on our website, including a video introduction.

If you'd like to explore Focal Ministry, please join us for an introductory session on Tuesday 14 January at 7pm on Zoom.

Bishops’ Christmas Message 2024

The Bishops’ Christmas Message reminds us that Christ came for all people.

The video features Christmas wishes in many languages, thanks to the community of Hope Hamilton Church of England Primary School.

Reflecting on the variety of cultures represented at this year’s Global Carol Service, Bishop Saju says; “We must remember that Jesus grew up in a rich tapestry of cultures, and it is no wonder that He is described as the saviour of the world.”

Bishop Martyn celebrates the diversity across our diocese and encourages us to pray for the many places around the world caught up in violence and oppression; “At this Christmas time, we remember in particular that this Christ child was born as the Prince of Peace; the one who came to break down the barriers of this world, the one who came to reconcile communities even as we are reconciled with God.”

You’re most welcome to download this video to play in your services.

Our latest prayer diary for January – April 2025 takes us on a wonderful journey of revelation through Epiphany and Candlemas, through the anguish of Lent and onto the glorious celebration of Easter.

Racial Justice Sunday – Save the Date

Next year’s Racial Justice Sunday is on 9 February 2025 and marks the 30th anniversary of the initiative.

A pack of resources to help plan services has been compiled by the Racial Justice Sunday Writers’ Group and produced by Churches Together in Britain and Ireland. The pack includes service plans, sermon outlines and articles. Find more information and resources: <https://ctbi.org.uk/racial-justice-sunday-9-february-2025/>

2025 Environment Awareness Days Calendar
A new resource has been published by the Church of England to help churches keep environmental issues in focus.

The 2025 Environment Days and Key Events Calendar lists key days, weeks and months which are associated with the environment, climate change awareness, and reaching net zero carbon.

It is hoped the calendar will help parishes raise awareness about climate change, as well as assist with event and campaign planning to boost support for local eco projects. It can be downloaded as a PDF with links to more information about the events featured.
