Collect for Sunday 29th June

Second Sunday after Trinity Sunday

Peter and Paul

Almighty God,

whose blessed apostles Peter and Paul glorified you in their death as in their life:

grant that your Church,

inspired by their teaching and example,

and made one by your Spirit,

may ever stand firm upon the one foundation,

Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,

who is alive and reigns with you,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reflection: Sunday 29th June 2025

Second Sunday after Trinity

Peter and Paul

'Who do YOU say I am?' asks Jesus. People had been trying to understand this enigmatic, charismatic figure whose words and works spoke of power and authority. Some said John the Baptist, others Elijah or Jeremiah – which would suggest that Jesus could be a resurrected incarnation.

'But what do YOU think?' Jesus asks of his disciples; perhaps the most challenging question, not just then, but now.

Peter – who else? – answers. 'You are the Christ, son of the Living God.' Today, when we remember the apostle Peter, he appears to us as one of the giants of the Christian faith, yet in this encounter with Jesus, Peter experienced a rare moment of true insight, without fully understanding the import of his answer; he was in fact a fallible human being, like you or me.

Peter became the self-appointed leader of the twelve disciples. He was probably well intentioned and always the first to speak up. From what we know he was an ordinary, married, uneducated fisherman. He was impetuous, boastful and vain-glorious. At the last supper he wanted to refuse his feet washing by Jesus. When Jesus, aware of his coming crucifixion, talks of how the disciples will all fall away, Peter declares, 'Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you' (Matthew 26)

but of course he will indeed deny his Lord, three times; a form of betrayal.

And yet...Jesus saw qualities in this flawed man who, after his humbling reinstatement (John 21) and the power of the Spirit of Pentecost, rose to become the leader of the Church. Peter is everyone. Fallible because human yet humbly accepting our weakness, we can, in God's power, play our part in God's purposes.

Rev'd John Taylor

Bible Readings:

Sunday 29th June

Second Sunday after Trinity

Peter and Paul

Zechariah 4.1-6a, 10b-end

1 The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as one is wakened from sleep.

2 He said to me, 'What do you see?' And I said, 'I see a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it; there are seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps that are on the top of it.

3 And by it there are two olive trees, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left.'

4 I said to the angel who talked with me, 'What are these, my lord?'

5 Then the angel who talked with me answered me, 'Do you not know what these are?' I said, 'No, my lord.'

6 He said to me, 'This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, says the Lord of hosts.

10 For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel. 'These seven are the eyes of the Lord, which range through the whole earth.'

11 Then I said to him, 'What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?'

12 And a second time I said to him, 'What are these two branches of the olive trees, which pour out the oil through the two golden pipes?'

13 He said to me, 'Do you not know what these are?' I said, 'No, my lord.'

14 Then he said, 'These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.'

Acts 12.1-11

12 About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church.

2 He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword.

3 After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.)

4 When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.

5 While Peter was kept in prison, the church prayed fervently to God for him.

6 The very night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison.

7 Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him, saying, 'Get up quickly.' And the chains fell off his wrists.

8 The angel said to him, 'Fasten your belt and put on your sandals.' He did so. Then he said to him, 'Wrap your cloak around you and follow me.'

9 Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel's help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision.

10 After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him.

11 Then Peter came to himself and said, 'Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.'

Matthew 16.13-19

13 Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?'

14 And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.'

15 He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?'

16 Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.'

17 And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven.

18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.

19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.'

Additional Collect for Sunday 29th June

Second Sunday after Trinity,

Peter and Paul

Almighty God,

who inspired your apostle Saint Peter to confess Jesus as Christ and Son of the living God:

build up your Church upon this rock,

that in unity and peace it may proclaim one truth and follow one Lord, your Son our Saviour Christ,

who is alive and reigns with you,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Energy Footprint Tool Reminder

Has your church filled in the Energy Footprint Tool (EFT) yet?

The Energy Footprint Tool (EFT) is an easy-to-use online tool that will reveal your church's carbon footprint, based on the energy you use to heat and light your buildings. All the information you need to fill in the EFT can be found on your church energy bills and should take less than an hour to complete.

Across the Church of England, Leicester is one of 12 dioceses which have achieved over 30% so far – we'd love as many churches as possible to take part.

The deadline for completion is 30 June 2025.

The National Churches Survey

The National Churches Trust is carrying out a survey to help policymakers, the media, and the wider public better understand the challenges churches face and to highlight the vital work that churches, like yours, do.

This survey has the support of denominations, faith, and heritage groups across the country. Your response will provide essential evidence to build a clearer picture – to tell a stronger, more informed story about your church, and others like it, so that we can address some of the biggest challenges facing churches and help ensure their future. Please complete The National Churches Survey. The more churches that take part, the more impactful it will be. The survey is live until 30 June.

Introduction to Church Insurance Webinar

Wednesday 9 July, 7.30-8.30pm – Zoom

Heather Ford, Church Support Manager with Ecclesiastical, will lead this session to help you understand your Ecclesiastical church insurance policy. It will provide an overview in easy to understand language, address common questions and go through the many resources available to help you administer your policy.

To register, email ChurchBuildings@LeicesterCofE.org

This is part of a series of free webinars from the Church Buildings Team in partnership with Ecclesiastical Insurance. Upcoming webinars, taking place 7.30-8.30pm on Zoom, are:

Health & Safety – 6 August

Opening Churches & Church Security – 3 Sept

Climate Change & Net Carbon Zero – 1 Oct

RECOGNISE

Monday 7 to Sunday 13 July

RECOGNISE is a national week of recognition for everyone involved in ministry with children, young people, and their families (CYPF).

Sunday 13 July is a day for churches nationwide to celebrate and thank those involved in this vital ministry.

Within your normal church service on Sunday 13 July, give 10 minutes to 'recognise' those involved with CYPF Ministry in your church. Download service ideas and a blessing:
