Collect for Sunday 15th June Trinity Sunday

Almighty and everlasting God,
you have given us your servants grace,
by the confession of a true faith,
to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity:
keep us steadfast in this faith,
that we may evermore be defended from all adversities;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Reflection: Sunday 15th June 2025 Trinity Sunday

It seems strange to be approaching the season of Trinity, ordinary time the lectionary calls it, before the year is half over, because the next season is Advent, then Christmas and our calendar year is gone!

The Holy Trinity, which we celebrate this Sunday, can be as a wise and far reaching guide for our lives, if we let it.
It's how Christians understand who God is. Every act of Christian worship is rooted in our belief in that there is one God existing in three persons: the Father, the Son Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

That makes the Trinity season the framework for everything else and the Church's calendar is shaped around the work of the Trinity.

Advent (the beginning of the church's year) and Christmas focus on the Father sending the Son.

Lent and Easter focus on Jesus' mission, death, and resurrection.

Pentecost focuses on the Holy Spirit being sent to empower the Church.

Then comes Trinity Sunday, which brings it all together. The weeks of the Trinity are generally when we learn about the teaching and miracles of Jesus and how to live out our faith.

The Trinity is the perfect example of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit working together in harmony, a model for us to practice love, compassion, and cooperation in the ways we connect with others.

The different persons of the Trinity show us the importance of community, connection, understanding, support and mutual respect.

The Holy Spirit is the presence of God within us, it can guide our decisions, inspire us to act kindly, and support our spiritual growth.

Our blessings are always given in the name of the God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit to remind us of the core of our belief - three in one and one in three.

Bible Readings:

Sunday 15th June

Trinity Sunday

Proverbs 8.1-4, 22-31

- 1 Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?
2 On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
3 beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
4 'To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.
- 22 The Lord created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
23 Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
24 When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.
25 Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth-26 when he had not yet made earth and fields,
or the world's first bits of soil.
27 When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, 28 when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep, 29 when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth, 30 then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight,
rejoicing before him always,
31 rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race.

Romans 5.1-5

- 1 Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

2 through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God.

3 And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance,

4 and endurance produces character, and character produces hope,

5 and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

John 16.12-15

12 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.

13 When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come.

14 He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

15 All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Additional Collect for Sunday 15th June

Trinity Sunday

Holy God,
faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth,
and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love,
that we may truly worship you,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Diocesan Synod Summary - May 2025

A meeting of the Diocesan Synod took place on Saturday 17 May at St Martins House in Leicester, with an agenda that covered a range of topics including finance, education, and safeguarding.

Bishop Martyn's Presidential Address highlighted positive signs of reversing church decline, emphasising our Intergenerational Communities strategic priority and plans for intergenerational hubs to encourage lifelong discipleship in young people.

During a presentation from the Diocesan Board of Education (DBE), Tracey Manns, deputy director, elaborated on the DBE's vision to transform the lives of children and young people through effective, distinctive, rooted, and inclusive education. She noted that while schools often focus on results, behaviour, and attendance, the DBE emphasises renewing the mind (Romans 12:2), character development based on Christian values, holistic pupil development, and daily collective worship to help students experience the Kingdom of God.

Questions from the floor were challenging, particularly around finance and Minster Communities, and in addressing the future, Bishop Martyn said that our hope is in God and comes from prayer and worship. Speakers also highlighted the need to increase congregation numbers and giving in churches.

He recently commented on the Government's extension of free school meals to all children in households receiving Universal Credit, as well as on new data showing the 'sheer scale' of child poverty. You can read more here:

Journeying with the Psalms through Life's Ups and Downs

St Dionysius traditionally makes much of their choir at services such as Nine Lessons & Carols, and their Easter Vigil, but saw an opportunity to create an event for the summer.

"I have often been struck by the honesty of the psalms and how they bring voice to both the ups and downs of life," explains Revd Phil. "The idea developed for a service that journeys through the different forms of psalms. I thought it could be a powerful act of gathered worship and provide an opportunity for the special involvement of the choir." Revd Phil worked with Pam Abbott, the choir coordinator and Jane Holyland, one of their organists, to set out a journey through the psalms that marks different tones; those that cry out in lament, those that are reflective, and those that are joyous – including an acclamation of God as creator of the world.

"Although the psalms are ancient texts, and the specific contexts in which they were written vary from our own contexts, there is nevertheless a commonality that resonates," says Revd Phil. "The sense of crying out to God in the midst of personal struggles and at the injustices in the world around is relevant today, and indeed throughout history. Similarly, the more joyous notes of thanksgiving and exultation are relatable even if the specific context is different."

The team are hopeful that through the readings, liturgy, music and silence there will be space for people to come to God with whatever is going on in their lives and the wider world.

The inaugural Festival of Psalms is on Sunday 22nd June 6-7.30pm. All are welcome
